

Darryl Sanders

December 29, 1968 - June 14, 2015

Darryl Michael Sanders departed this life and began his new journey on June 13, 2015. Darryl was born on December 29, 1968 to Gloria Sanders and Melvin Reed. He was the beloved brother of Adrienne L. Sanders and Terrence Sanders (who preceded him in death).

Darryl spent his early years on the south side of Chicago where he attended Doolittle Elementary School and Wendall Phillips High School. The family later moved to Saginaw, Michigan where Darryl graduated from Saginaw High School. Darryl worked in job core for two years before enrolling in Cincinnati State University where he received his Associates degree. After completing his degree, Darryl worked for ten years at the Ohio Industrial Commission. Darryl then returned to Chicago, where he started working at Wright College Humboldt Park Vocational Education Center. Darryl received recognition this year from Wright College HPVEC for ten years of service.

Darryl was a loving and caring person who did not mind helping others. He liked playing practical jokes on his many cousins and playing computer games. Darryl was very technologically savvy and always made sure that he had the latest gadgets to record and post his many adventures while traveling around the city and pictures of his cats Storm and Sasha. Darryl was a loving son, brother, nephew, cousin, uncle and friend to many and will truly be missed.

Darryl leaves to cherish his memory his mother Gloria Sanders-Harris, his sister Adrienne Sanders, grandfather Hermon (Myrtle) Sanders Aunts Michelle

Taylor and Maxine, Uncles Andrew and Herman, nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.
