“ Words cannot express the way I feel or felt when I heard about Frank's passing. I met Frank several years ago through his professional life. At that time in my life I needed someone that I could trust with my business. God sent Frank to do just that. During our time of working together, we established a friendly relationship. We always talked about God. Frank loved God, his wife, children, and family. Frank was a unique individual who genuinely displayed love, concern and kindness towards people in general. I will always cherish the memories of Frank and I will truly miss him as well. My sincere prayers are with the family.

Love,

Ms. Reyes

“ Frank was a dear friend to my family ~ He ministered to my son through the last years of his illness, Frank gave of his time and himself fully. Reading scripture to Deon after he lost his sight, listening to him giving him a confident ear! After Deon's death in 2010 Frank transferred his ministry to me 🙏 calling, encouraging and constantly Praying for me! I am here for his family now and forever

“ I will never forget elder Frank. I would join him along with other members at CBC for early morning prayer on Saturday. He taught me how to cry out to God. I had never heard a man of God cry out for his church, its members, or his wife and unborn children like he did! He was a true saint who loved and cherished his wife! I can count on one hand how many saints I truly felt loved by and he was one of them! My prayers are with the family!

“ Frank was such a a pleasure to talk to and be around. He was an honest man that I trusted to help me make life decisions. He loved his wife and his family. When ever we talked he was always concerned about how things we going. Frank was truly a man of God. He would always give encouragement in no matter what the situation was. His kind words will be missed. May his family forever find peace in knowing that absent in the flesh is presence with the Lord. Maybe God continue to bless you. Jackie Deanes and family.
