Henry Lee Snow

January 07, 1947 – August 28, 2025

Henry L. Snow Jr., affectionately known as “Buddy” or “Snow,” was born on January 7, 1947, in Egypt, Mississippi. He was the eldest of two children born to Henry Sr. and Clotieal Cunningham, both of whom preceded him in death, along with his beloved younger brother, Oscar L. “Toot” Snow.

Henry attended Phillips High School before continuing his education at an automotive trade school, where he deepened his lifelong passion for cars. That passion never faded—it was not uncommon to find a detailed illustration of a complete Corvette chassis proudly displayed in his home. His enthusiasm was infectious, a reminder to us all of the joy that comes from dedicating yourself to something you truly love.

Henry met Gladys at a young age, brought together by their shared love of automobiles. They were married on January 30, 1971, and shared 53 wonderful years. Gladys passed away on January 6, 2025, preceding him in death.

Although Henry did not have children of his own, he had a love for all his nieces and nephews. If any one of them called on him, he was there—no questions asked!

Uncle Buddy is lovingly remembered by four nieces: Summer Snow-Fluker (Simmie), Valinda Williams (Deven), Brandi, and Angelique, along with six nephews: Dominic (Melvina), Antoine Derrick (Tiffany), Donnie Derrick (Beverly), Gregory Jr., Christopher Jr., and Nicholas; in addition to his sister-in-law, Renee Snow and numerous great-nieces, great-nephews, relatives, and friends. Preceding him in death was his nephew Wyman Snow.
