

Marshall Flowers

December 10, 1947 - February 19, 2014

Marshall Flowers was born on December 10, 1947 to parents Laverne Flowers and Marcellus Nims in Chicago, IL. He grew up on the South Side of Chicago in the Altgeld Gardens neighborhood.

He attended Carver Middle School and graduated from Carver High School in 1965. He loved and played all sports and had a special fondness for baseball with his favorite team being the Cubs.

Marshall met a lot of people in Altgeld Gardens and in Lowden Homes where many lasting friendships were formed.

Marshall's first job was at U.S. Steel Mill for several years. In later years he worked as a janitor for Chicago Housing Authority. He was then employed by Chicago Christian Industrial League as a landscaper.

In 2001 he married Martha Noble. She has always been a good, kind and supportive wife. To this union, no children were born.

Marshall was preceded in death by his mother, father, brother (Joe Allen), and sister (Beverly Ann).
