“ Our memories go back to the late 70's when we first started our families and the times we spent together as our children grew up knowing you as Uncle Roy. Those memories will always hold a special place in our hearts. Continued Love and Blessings to the family.

“ The memories are great, and the time spent was precious.

I spent my summers growing up with your family in Chicago, and they were some of the best times of my life. Aunt Janis showed us the kind of love that only a loving Aunt could.

You were a GIANT loving force of a man all my life! You have a heart that was always willing to give and to listen. Your meek and humble spirit is like none other, and to spend one moment in your presence was to be blessed.

I will always LOVE you Uncle Roy. I will always remember who you were to the world!

*Your niece,
Angela R Dunn
Lawrenceville, GA.*
